

Free Wifi in the Downtown HUB remains popular and problem free.

	Jul 2013	Aug 2013
Distinct Clients on the network	365	323
Average Clients per day	26	20

La Rive now open

La Rive, a new dining spot in the Renaissance Station located in the 400-block of Ninth Street opened September 13th. La Rive offers a bar, full-service dining, takeout, catering and delivery.

The restaurant combines an eclectic, fine dining atmosphere with a "Passion of Life" menu that features regional spices and flavours from around the globe, from Chinese stir fry and dim sum, to Japanese sushi, Thai curries, French and Italian cuisine.

"We are truly excited to bring our unique business to the Downtown HUB", said Pan. "The flavours we create, the wine and beer listings we will stock, and the inviting atmosphere we have developed will give people a totally unique experience from what they are accustomed to in the area."

Global Market

Global Market attendance was great this year. The Market unveiled a Market Sponsors Donation Board .

Market Hours:

Saturdays in October 10:00am-1:00pm until weather prevents the market from being open.

Saturday October 26th, final craft vendor sale, 10:00am-1:00pm pending weather.

Additional information can be found online at <http://www.globalmarketbrandon.com/>